DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET.

JAMES B. MCCREARY. For Lieutenant-Governor. For Attorney-General, THOMAS E. MOSS. Por Auditor, D. HOWAD SMITH.

For Treasurer, JAMES W. TATE. For Superintendent of Public Instruction, For Register of Land Office, THOMAS D. MARCUM.

against anti-republican tendencies. Every attempt on the part of the Federal Government to exercise a power not delegated to it in the Constitution, or to exercise a delegated power in any manner not therein prescribed, is an act of usurpation, demanding the instant and un-qualified condemnation of a people jealous of their liberties. And we hold that any uncoustitutional interference by the General Govern-ment with the local affairs of any State to any extent or under any pretense whatever should be at once condemned by all classes of every section of the Union, as all such acts tend to the destruction of our Federal system and the consolidation of all power in a centralized des-

THE Calhoon Progress man pines for a bran "dancy," or Dantz brandy, he's uncertain which.

THE Leitchfield Herald has a poet whose sweetheart's feet must "steal and translating this distich:

A blossom that perfumes the free forest air, Mid the wilds of Kentucky's fair shore.

Col. Johnston did not speak at the Hine's Mill barbecue, Saturday. Mr. G. C. Wedding declared himself a Republican candidate for the Legislature, and an awful dumbness fell on that seals an ovster's lips.

Some of our exchanges attach undue for any one family.

clines to continue the joint discussion softly in your heart: "Lead me not into trivial matters have been as studiously with McCreary after their present list temptation, for, O Father, I am weak." evaded by their chief pipers here, and of appointments is exhausted. Our "Little JIMMY" has proved himself an overmatch for the Radical leviathan. Discretion, in this instance, is by far erring, weak as you may have been, there sitions grape and shell, alternately and ad the better part of valor.

ken of as a model landlord; and, if we has given it to you. How can you trifle through this portion of Kentucky. By mistake not, have seen screeds to that with His gifts? Be a man for the sake the way, Hon. E. D. Walker and your en at this place, which every one, far and one of which was to have a clause in the effect from our local editor. We now of the father whose pride you were: for correspondent had the pleasure of that near, are invited to attend. We will try constitution to prevent or limit local and know how it is ourself. He is the land-the sake of the mother you loved and honorable gentleman's society from the and make the occasion an enjoyable one, lord of the Green River Confederacy. His fare is equal to that of any hotel in Louisville, his rooms are meely upholstered, and even a Granger can't in your shame. grumble at his prices.

THE candidates for the Legislature, Messrs. Rowe and Hocker, have publiely "defined" their positions. Both favor the reduction of the salaries of all Be true to yourself. Be a man. Live a equipped as thus saith the law, so that officials, "from Governor down." This is unmitigated nonsense. Salaries are not half high enough now to induce first-class legal talent to accept seats upon the judicial bench, which is real ly the most important office in the State. And then, the salaries of the State officials form but a small item in the budget of expenses. If these gentlemen are really anxious to relieve the poor dear tax-ridden people from the burden of monstrous and unnecessary taxation. let them level the lance of extermination against liquor license. The State realizes not over 832,000 a year from this covenant with death and league with hell, and expends not less than $450,000 to punish criminals created by the liquor traffic. There is a tangi- this community in the last few weeks. ble and stubborn enemy of the public weal, depleter of the public purse, and breeder of nearly half a million of dollars of unjust taxation. Have these gentlemen the nerve to assault it in behalf of the public good? We shall see. Mr. Hocker claims that the farmers of Louisvill, spent a few days in town last constitute nine-tenths of the population of the State, and yet own only about one-tenth of its wealth; and jumps to the extraordinary conclusion that "it is the result of bad legislation." That is curious. There is not, and never has been, a statute enacted against the ag- sembly of Kentucky, ricultural interests of the people. And if there were, the farmers themselves were their own oppressors, for, during the Legislature have outnumbered those of other callings and professions ten to one. Mr. Rowe, who wants to save at the spiggot by the reduction of salaries, wants to knock out the lung with a constitutional convention, which will will be out again in a few days. cost the people several hundred thousand dollars additional taxation, to do work that can be done by the Legislature without the cost of a dollar extra, of this place, who is a Democratic can little Kentucky women who eventually become the mothers of heroes. She had fixed her heart on Mr. Dick An- be a candidate. DERSON and matrimony. Her daddy had no fancy for RICHARD as a son-inlaw. The young folks planned an elopement for last Sunday. The old man heard of it while on his road to church and turned back to frustrate the prohis heart and home." He found Drck the house. And they twain wrestled all over the yard, the old gentleman, in his frantic efforts to "hold her back," man followed, and Dick grabbed and We hold it to be absolutely essential to the preservation of the liberties of the citizens, that the several States shall be maintained in all their rights, dignity and equality, as the most complete and reliable administration of their ton, where they were married. The preacher says Miss Frankie was the prettiest but the thinnest dressed bride

> For the Heratd. Be Something-Do Something.

BY QUITS.

give odors," else we make a poor out at it. Use it. God will require it at your know there are those in your scope of the some; corn has suffered for work. Wheat

Put your "talent" to work. God may have given you more than one, but, if only one, put that out at interest. Do Johnson's mouth like to the silence the cards, listening to the clink of the appeal while in their midst in 1874. "For shame at the bare thought of repeating abundant harvest. importance to the fact that Col. FRED. them to your mother or sister. Set that The vox populi of old Casey is, "Democ-GRANT has backed out from the Big glass down. Don't touch it again. For racy forever," and they anxiously await Horn expedition. There is nothing in your mother's sake, for your own soul's the approaching 24th. 'Tis then they it. He only thought that the big horns sake, I appeal to you. Be a man. You hope-no, but could, if the Republican of his illustrious daddy were enough can. Raise your right hand and say: "I standard-bearers would sing-to hear JUST as we expected. HARLAN de- and night; nay every hour in the day, say amnesty, tariff, &c., &c., all of which

There is something grand in you. Give t a chance. You can crush it out, "half dust, half Deity" as you are. The coarse, the earthy part of your nature, noble life, and leave it as a precious legaer to those who love you

Life is real, life is earnest, And the grave is not its goal, Dust thou art, to dust returnest, Was not spoken of the soul.

OUR CANEYVILLE LETTER.

CANEYVILLE, KY., June 26. W. C. Tilford, junior editor of the Gravson County Herald, retired from that position last week, and the paper is now being published by Mr. Havnes alone. tleman of journalistic talent.

O! THE RAIN-THE WET, WET RAIN. A great amount of rain has fallen in and tobacco seasons have not been lacktion, and that the crop will be ten per general opinion.

week at the residence of G. E. Porter.

THE PEOPLE'S CONVENTION meets at Leitchfield on Monday for the purpose of nominating a candiate to represent Grayson at the next General As-stabbed at the races Saturday, the 19th covering from the effects of the wound. and Dr. R. W. Brandon, the attending phy-

ANOTHER BARBECCE oken of at this place in July,

DR. R. W. BRANDON,

ty, is one of those up-headed, valiant couragement in every quarter. The doc- tender wave, and remember you as the was destined for Georgia. tor has made us a good representative iron horse pulls us along to the home of once, and it is highly probable that he our adoption. will do so again, should he continue to Barbara Wooden and Mary E. Stover were arrested on Saturday, the 19th inst., for disorderly conduct at the horse-races that day. They were put under guard to await trial the next Monday, and when the time arrived the trial was postponed posed hegira of the "sole daughter of until the next day. That night the guards fell asleep, and, by the aid of some at the gate with horses, waiting for unprincipled party, the prisoners escaped Miss FRANKIE. The old man met and from the house in which they were guardnabled her just as she emerged from ed. Barbara was recaptured at Stevensburg last Thursday, and brought back here yesterday, and great excitement prevails over the trial, which at this writing is in progress before Esquire Eskridding her of every stitch of clothing ridge. We are not the man to sympaexcept her sh-whatever the women thize with such characters as she is, nor call the garment, when she escaped his do we uphold such conduct as she is acclutch and reached her lover. The old cused of, but we are the man to cry out "Justice to whom justice is due," and laid the baffled daddy on his back, and town, her home, and has since flown own domestic concerns, and the surest bulwarks soon, "swift as the winged coursers of trom justice, would share a worse fate the air," the determined lovers were than this poor, helpless, fallen wreck of flying over the country towards Owen- woman will perhaps be compelled to suf-J. T. N.

FROM CASEA COUNTY.

LIBERTY, Casey Co., Ky., June 20. DEAR HERALD:-If it is in any manner apropos-however, we'll not debate that in" and "drap you a few lines" while on a short visit to our former home, Liberty, Don't stand there with your arms fold- Casey county; and this we do on account of glad to have him with us for one day, d. Don't stand idly dawdling with your our good opinion of you personally, Mr. Edi- however, for it was the first time we have and to succor and console each other in napkin, wrapping and unwrapping your tor, and of your paper, which is the light had the chance to get a good look at him times of distress and affliction, and let us "talent," trying to find out where to bury of Ohio, and an enterprise of which the it, and, like the slothful servant of the are proud; and for the further reason that parable, getting ready excuses against the we are ever ready to contribute of our day of the Master's coming. Don't bury gleanings to the solicitous home, and we the past ten. Tobacco has been injured hands, and with interest, for He has but moral vineyard who will hail with joy a and oats have been blown down; the soil from the county of which we are writing. omething. Be something. Don't hang the citizens of Casey, and especially those around street corners. Keep away from of Middleburg and vicinity, both friends saloons. Don't spent your evenings in and enemies of the Temperance cause, for smoke-beclouded back-rooms, toying with the carnest, learned, and matter-of-fact abundant yield, notwithstanding the erally mutual, we see them in our brethglasses, hearing words and jests that the good of the Order," they wish him a would make you hide your face with long and happy life, and eventually an can, I will; so help me God." Say it in something more definitely of and concernearnest, and every day, morning, noon, ing the third term, the civil rights bill, speech at Hartford, when Col. McCreary Oh! my friend, my brother: tempted, was hurling upon his very vulnerable pois hope for you yet. Jesus pleads for libitum. On that day Hon. Thos. E. Moss, widower. you. Don't forget that. Don't throw Democratic nominee for Attorney General, WE have heard SAM GOODMAN spo- away your power of doing good. God will address the people in his canvass kissed in your boyhood: for the sake of time we reached the train at Beaver Dam and long to be remembered: the sister who leans upon you. Be a until he left us at Cecilian Junction, for man, for the sake of the wife and the Franklin, Simpson county, the point at will be present, and will recount his He favored the reduction of the salaries children who live in your honor or sink which he began the canvass, and we'll perils, hardships and narrow escapes du- of all the officers of the State, from Govgoes, for know ye, "brederen" on the other can draw it down, down! Don't let it do it. ments, reads the papers, and is armed and there, deposited it in a bar-room, and re- sume to become a condidate of his own acas to be contented, at least "spiritually," since 'twill be all the same to him whethhave his ardor assunged by what we write, him. That's all. that would be folly in the superlative degree. Aren't they, every mother's son of them, a child and children of a parent whose name is "Vigilance?" And don't he, she or it (or, you unwashed, who have more interest in the subject than we, give any gender your taste elects, and you'l! more than likely hit center, for there's While we regret the loss of Mr, T., we something very dubious somewhere,) have feel confident that the Herald will be sentinels and body-guards, high privates none the less spicy and interesting under and low privates, committees of hospitalthe supervision of Mr. H., who is a gen- ity and committees of arrangement and flags? Yes, and that, too, here as well as at Hartford; and though their man should fizz out in toto, the fuglemen, with most approved unanimity, pronounce the whole thing a victory of brains over enthusiasm. ing. There is a good crop set in this sec- Do you suppose Gen. Harlan felt Byronic as he neared the railroad depot and be cent. larger than year before last is the held a waiting escort, the day previous to his shooting that me speech into us?-Certainly not, because (they say) he's a prosy, matter-of-fact man, yet

"How sweet to know there is an eye will Mark our coming, And grow brighter when we come." 'Tis a soul-feast to have one's optics after a term of months' confinement poring over documents and comparing the scripts and the lex non scripts, again Samuel Preston, the man who was dwell upon the beauties of Lincoln, Boyle, Marion, Washington and Nelson counties, Green River, about 4 miles below Rochthe past twenty years, the farmers in inst., and whom your enterprising Spring as they now are, clothed with verdure in-Lick correspondent reported dead, is re- effable, crimped, tasselated, plain, rich, boat, Houston Combs, was bringing a wave-dotted-the home of the gleeful barge from Paradise laden with five thoulambkin, the stately ox, and the symmets sand bushels of corn and some other sician, says that by skillful treatment he rical racer. Dear Wallace, inasmuch as freight, she ran her on a snag and sunk a notice in the correspondent's column of you were once a "blue grass" fellow, it her in thirty-seven feet of water. Nothing our county paper. may be that were you here more printer's of any consequence has been recovered ink would be scattered round, and-well vet, except about one thousand bushels

LETTER FROM BEAVER DAM.

Beaver Dan, Kr., June 29th, 1875. Nothing of sufficient consequence has transpired in our little town during the past two weeks to cause any perceptible change in the daily routine of business

BEAVER DAN AVOCATIONS. From "early morn till the shades of eve" a group of men can be heard discussing the merits and demerits of grangerism; a little farther on another can be heard giving their views on the Beechers Tilton scandal; which, no doubt could that learned jury hear, would cause them kind on or near the grounds. to give a verdict of "not guilty," and Beecher would stand before the world as spotless as an innocent babe. The most interesting topic of all however, is the and practical address, in the shape of an talked about without cessation fifteen and Orphans' Home, was delivered by were such the case in this instance the long months, and over seventeen thousand Col. O. P. Johnson, after which they adunprincipled rascal of this place who in- dreams have been given to the public for journed for dinner. duced her to come here from Elizabeth- carnest consideration. The end surely draweth nigh.

done to the railroad last Monday night of the Mystic Tie:"

DAMAGE TO THE ROAD.

week. The rails and ties were washed which prevented the east-bound trains due question, for the critic will relieve us of happened, as it was considerable expense that responsibility-but 'll simply "pitch to the road; and then, the County Judge ties of brotherly affection that unite us wanted to leave on Tuesday and had to And let us ever remember the binding ob return home till Wednesday. We were since his election.

We have had rain almost every day for word, and we were about to say, a face has been washed from the high corn ground to the public roads, in some places To the Senior of the HERALD we beg to four feet deep; and on bottom land the communicate the compliment paid him by water has been standing on corn for sev-

> HARVESTING HAS COMMENCED this week in earnest, and we look for an

THE CROMWELL BARBECUE. We all went to the barbecue at Cromwell, last Thursday, and were pleased to ye have love one toward another.' notice that a nice orderly crowd were on the grounds all day. Not a drunken man was seen on the grounds, which speaks well for the day, and at which some were surprised, for there was predictions that whisky would be predominant. Ouite a number was present, and all seemed to enjoy themselves, considering the warmness of the day. For fear Say it softly, say it aloud if you like, but say it in carnest, and God will hear the they were by Gen. Harlan in his opening the they were by Gen. Harlan in his opening the they were by Gen. Harlan in his opening the they were by Gen. Harlan in his opening the they were by Gen. Harlan in his opening the they were by Gen. Harlan in his opening the they were by Gen. Harlan in his opening the they were by Gen. Harlan in his opening the they were by Gen. Harlan in his opening the they were by Gen. Harlan in his opening the they were by Gen. Harlan in his opening the they were by Gen. Harlan in his opening the they were by Gen. Harlan in his opening the they were by Gen. Harlan in his opening the they were by Gen. Harlan in his opening the they were by Gen. Harlan in his opening the they were by Gen. Harlan in his opening the they were by Gen. Harlan in his opening the they were by Gen. from the way he talked to the young and a great many of those present knew ladies one would judge him to be an old him personally, and he desired to repre-

A BEAVER DAM BARBECUE.

THE "LOST MERCHANT" undertake to say, and we know whereof ring the last three months. He will, for ernor down. In concluding he spoke very we speak, that the Democratic party will twenty-five cents, show to the crowd how favorably of his opponent, not wane or grow lukewarm wherever he a Hartford man-with a bald head-rode to a neighboring town with a bottle of who then presented himself and addresses side of the house, that he has the docu- whisky in his pocket, and on arriving the audience. He said he did not prethe Hon. Cassius can frame his ideas so friends in, borrowed the proprietor's large and respectable number of his fellow. er the river "raises or rises." However, that the "Lost Merchant" had been found make the race. He proposed, if elected, no sensible Republican, of course, will as the HERALD had ceased to speak of to represent the whole people to the best Juno.

LETTER FROM TAYLORTOWN.

TAYLORTOWN, June 20. EDITOR HERALD:-Hoping that you will paper, which, by the way, is gaining favor RAIN, WEEDS AND CORN.

petition between them, but the competi-

est crop set is 15 acres. THE WHEAT HARVEST.

THE TOBACCO CROP.

Wheat is turning to a golden color, and in the ensuing week we shall hear the music created by the reaper whetting his ball that night was a very enjoyable afsoythe, and our imaginations will picture fair. plates heaped high with beautiful light biscuits, accompanied by a generous sup- very promising, and many farmers were and the men of the North and South are ply of yellew butter and plenty of engaged in harvesting wheat.

A BARGE SUNK. Quite a serious incident occurred on ester, on last Tuesday night. As the tow

MISS FRANKIE STEWART, daughter didate for the Legislature, is canvassing look towards Madison, Montgomery, hauling it away for that purpose. The fully equal to that of the above-menof Mr. John Stewart, of Owen county, and meeting with golden en- Clark and Fayette, and give it a gentle, corn belonged to the River Comyany, and tioned neighborhood. The river land for

AN IMPENDING DEBATE.

The common subject of consideration among the people of this section of country is the impending debate between Wir C. Taylor, of the Baptist persuasion, and Elder Price, of the Christian church, to be held at Rochester in October.

The Masonie Celebration at Crom well on the 21th.

We attended the Masonic celebration at Cromwell on the 24th inst., and had a good time generally. The crowd in attendance was not a large one, but a very fair turn-out, and the day passed off pleasantly and orderly. There was not a drunken man nor a rowdy to be seen, and we heard of no fights or disturbance of any

A short time before noon the proces marched out to the grove, where a short are washed down in every direction. Beaver Dam lottery suit, this has been appeal for help for the Masonic Widows'

After dinner, Rev. R. G. Gardner deliv ered a very able address upon the objects and principles of Masonry. He closed by worked its way from the opening of the Considerable amount of damage was the following exhortation to the Brothers chasm several miles below. If this the-

Brethren, as members of the Order, other the warmest friendship, the most sin-cere and unaffected love, that true charhere Tuesday morning, from arriving till ity that is kind, gentle, easy to be entreat-Wednesday afternoon. We were sorry it ed, without partiality and without hypoc-

Never forget, brethren, those solemn ligations we are under to stand by each other, and defend each other in times of ter flows over this fall and it is quite natdanger, to help each other in times of need ever bear in mind the binding promise we are under never to traduce a character, by speaking evil of him behind his back or before his face.

There are two things I would especially nrge upon your consideration; First, By Divine help, to get rid out of your hearts every thing contrary to true masonic charity; the command is: "Above all things have fervent charity among yourselves. 'Lay aside all malice and all guile.'

Secondly, Avoid as much as possible, seeing what may be considered faults in your brethren, at least, be not too hasty to censure. Remember "it is the lot of poor humanity to err." "To err is human, to forgive is divine." Seeing faults is genren, they see them in us, hence the necessity for mutual forbearace and forgiv-ness. The Master has said. "By this shall ye know that ye are my disciples, if

Finally, brethren, let your light shine exhibit in your lives, and in your intercourse with each other and all with whom you mingle, that charity and those noble traits of character, that should ever be then the poetic effect is vastly different, Accepted Mason.

After Bro. Gardner concluded his as dress, the candidates for legislative honors addressed the audience, each very brief-came first, and said he had been paramount idea at present. During the sent them for one term at Frankfort, if they thought him qualified for the posi-Speaking of barbecues reminds me that tion. He favored the calling of a constion Saturday, July 10th, one is to be giv- tutional convention for various reasons roads or other corporations. He favored the repeal of the conventional interest bill

MR. R. P. HOCKER, peatedly through the day carried his cord, but he had been called upon by a glasses and sugar, used his own liquor, citizens to become a candidate. He had, and while feeling so happy, remarked in deference to their wishes, consented to of a common country. Oh! how I wish I of his ability. He insisted that all classes were interested in having a good, fair and impartial representative, for from the Legislature emanated all the laws for the protection of innocence and virtue and the give this a small space in your excellent punishment of vice and crime. He said the farmers composed about nine-tenths every day, I will feel very much honored. of the population of the State, and yet they only owned about one-tenth of the To-day the rain is falling gently, wealth, which he thought was partly due and weeds, grass, and corn are growing to bad legislation. He opposed high salrapidly. Indeed there seems to be a com-petition between them, but the competi-had come out on his platform. He did tion will not last long unless it ceases rain- not propose to say that he was qualified to fill the position, but left that question for the people to determine. Mr. Rowe had Farmers in this immediate vicinity have accused him of excessive youthfulness. made good use of the protracted season, but he was old enough to be eligible, and utterance. Do you know what all this and are generally done setting. The larg- he was decidedly of the opinion that if he had it now.

We left for home as soon as the speaking was over, but we understand that the

The crops all along the route looked

LETTER from NO. S.

No 8, Onto County, Ky., June 22. EDITOR HERALD: Not seeing anything n your valuable paper from this part of the moral vineyard, I thought it no more than justice that this vicinity should have IIS GEOGRAPHY AND TOPOGRAPHY. The neighborhood of No. 8 lies contig--but, however, we'll modestly (we're of corn. This is unfit for anything only uous to that of Taylortown, and the lands proverbial for that virtue) hiss our hand, to feed to hogs. Farmers are very busy for farming purposes if not superior, are corn, and the upland for tobacco, are ex- Louisville, Paducah & Southwest celled by none in the county.

WHEAT, CORN, TOBACCO AND OATS. I suppose, as is usual with young correspondents, a notice of the crops is nec- Leitchfield at essary in order to fill up my letter. Wheat, Beaver Dam at corn, tobacco and oats are the staple products of our soil. Wheat, a portion of which is harvested, will make an average Nortenville Junction at crop, notwithstanding the severity of the winter. Oats are looking well. Of to-bacco and corn much cannot as yet be said, except that a large crop of both has Owensboro Junction at been planted.

The farmers are very much discouraged at the protracted wet weather, and many fear an overflow, as the heaviest rain that has been known for a number of years fell last night and this morning. The low formed at the Hall in Cromwell, and lands are covered with water, and fences FELIX.

Ningara's Wear and Tear. N. Y. Herald's Correspondent.

As is well known, the theory is that gradually throughout the long lapse of centuries the fall has by slow degrees ory be correct, the upward progress of the fall has been exceedingly slow, for the away for some distance between the bound together in the "Mystic tie," it is as-oldest inhabitant is able to indicate but suredly our duty to cultivate each for the brief changes in its formation. Careful observers, however, detect an obvious change in the conformation of the Horseshoe Fall. The incessant rush of the mighty cataract has perceptibly deepened, the indenture near the American side so that its shape is quite different from what it was a year ago. The great bulk of waural that the wearing away of the edge should be more rapid and perceptible here than at other points. The American Fall does not show as straight a line as heretofore, proving very clearly that time is working its changes here also. Some go so far as to assert that the fall will gradually work its way up to Buffalo; but the possibility of such an event is not very likely to disturb the equanimity of the hotel-keepers or cause any diminution in the value of real estate. There is one positive change that old tourists particularly notice, and that is the absence of the old light-house. No vestige of it remains, and it is a matter of general surprise, considering the fine view obtained from its summit, that a new and more massive and substantial structure is not erected in its place. Of course the necessiry of such a fill the vacancy caused by the death of F. R. tower, as far as sight-seeing is concerned, is obviated to some extent through the is obviated to some extent through the elevators enabling visitors to view the falls from the suspension bridge towers; but the distinguishing marks of a Free and for in the latter case one gets only a bird's-eye view of the falls, and in the for-COURIER-JOURNAL mer one stood on the brink of the awful chasm itself, and could realize more fully its grand and overwhelming sublimity.

> General Fitzhngh Lee is back from Boston. He spoke as follows at Norfolk a few nights since: I come forward, in response to your calls, to thank you for this very flattering reception. I went to Boston as a guest of your own "Artillery Blues," not because I expected to have a pleasant trip and a good time, but I hope for a higher, holier parpose-for the good of our State, our people, and all sections had time to tell you of the reception accorded to us by those people of Bostonof the enthusiastic crowds that greeted us upon every occasion-how the streets were lined with people pouring out their welcome to us and bidding us welcome, thrice welcome. I wish I could stop with you long enough to give you some of the many interesting incidents of our trip. How a sightless soldier told me, "General, your boys put my eyes out, but I am glad to see you here in our midst;" how an aged gentleman, grasping both my hands in his, said, "General, I lost two sons in the war-the only two I hadbut for public considerations and for the nation's good, I am gird to see you and your people here at this time." How my hand was shaken by people whose overflowing hearts prevented a single word of means? It means at that end of the line ever would have sufficient intelligence he precisely what the outpouring of your people at this end of the line to meet us upon our return means, viz: That the people of this country have taken this matter of reconstruction out of the hands of the politicians; that the crust which separated them has been broken at last,

But the spirit of utilization seems to be a long since christened the "Bride's Veil."

be a thing so much to be wondered at if some enterprising Yankee, imbued with a broader and more comprehensive utilitarian spirit and larger grasp of inventive genius, should turn the whole fall into a gigantic raceway for gigantic mills,

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

at last allowed to see each other face to

R. C. MERRILL MERRILL & HART,

MERCHANT TAILORS, o. 172 Main Street, between Fifth and Sixth,

LOUISVILLE, KY.

Railroad Time-Table

The down train for Paducah leaves Louis-ville, daily except Sunday at 8:30 a. m. and arrives at Cecilian Junction at 12:37 1:00 2:50 3:20 3:45 4:10 5:05 The up train for Loui d arrives at 9:15 9:45

12:45 lian Junction at Cenver Dam by stage line twice a day.

These trains connect with Elizabethtown at ceclian: with Owensboro at Owensboro

Leichfield at 10:15

12:10 p. m.

Nashville at Nortonville.
D. F. WHITCONN, Superintendent.

Evansville, Owensboro & Nashville. The Mail and Accommodation trains are run y the following time-table:

	MAIL
Leaves		- 2	Arrives:
Owensboro at	6.00 a m		8 00 p m
Sutherland's	6.28 "		7.35 4
Crow's	6.36 		7.27 14
Lewis'	6.48 		7.16 **
Riley's	7.00 		7.05 **
Tichenor's	7.10 		6.55 #
Livermore D.	7.20 4		6.45 **
Livermore	7.25 4		6.40 **
Island	7.37 		6.29 **
Stroud's	7.48 		6.17 "
S. Carrollton			5.57 **
L.P.&S.W.Cros'	8.20 "		5.45 **
L.P.&S.W.Dep.	8.25 "		5.40 "
m i y	CCOMMODAT	ION.
Leaves			Arrives
Owensbero at	2.00 p m		12.00 a m
Sutherland's	2.30 		11.24 "
Crow's	2.48 "		11.14 "
Crow's Lewis'	3.02 "		11.00 **
Riley's	3.16 "		10.46 **
Tichenor's	3.30 #		10.32 "
Livermore D.	3.44 "		10.18 **
Livermore	3 49 "		10.13 **
Island	4.02 "		9.58 **
Stroud's	4 17 "		9.44 *4
S. Carrollton	4.40 		9.20
L.P.AS.W.Cr'g	4.55 		9.85 **
I D &C W Dan			0.00 44

Trains run daily, Sundays excepted.
R. S. TRIPLETT, Gen'i Manager.

Meets regularly every Thursday evening in Taylor's Hall. Transient members of the Order are cordially invited to attend. B. P. BERRYMAN, W. C. T. WILLIE LEWIS, W. Socy.

ELECTION NOTICE.

BY virtue of an order of the Ohio County Court, made at the June term, 1875, of said art, there will be a poll opened in DISTRICT NO. 9.

AGAIN! 1875

LOUISVILLE WEEKLY

ntinues for the present year its liberal ar rangement, whereby, on the 31st of December, 1875, it will distribute impartially among its

810.000

in presents, comprising greenbacks and nearly one thousand useful and beautiful articles. The Courier-Journal is a long-established live, wide-awake, progressive, newsy, bright the American side a flour mill over the narrow stream, the fall from which was and spicy paper.

No other paper offers such inducements to subscribers and club agents. Circulars with left particulars and specimen copies sent free The mill runs day and night, and there never is any lack of water. It would not n application. Terms, $2 00 a year and liberal offers to clubs Daily edition $12. Postage prepaid on all apers without extra charge. Address W. N. HALDEMAN, President Courier-Journal Company Louisville, Ky.

New Goods! New Goods!

FOR

L. ROSENBERG & BRO. Mammoth

SPRING AND SUMMER STOCK!

Every department in our stock is full and our Lowest Notch!

We are confident that no other house will do well by you as ours. We respectfully so-

GOODS AND PRICES before making your spring purchases, believing that it will pay you to do so. no15 tf

KAHN & SON. ROCKPORT, KY.

Are in receipt of a large and well-selected stock of standard and seasonable goods, such as LADIES' DRESS GOODS,

> GENTS' & YOUTHS' CLOTHING, HATS AND CAPS,

BOOTS AND SHOES, DRILLINGS & SHEETINGS.

BLEACHED & BR. DOMESTICS.

and everything usually kept in well-regulated dry goods houses. LOOK AT THIS:

Calleges from 7 to 9 cents; Blenc and Brown Cottons from 8 to 15 ce and all other goods equally low. Call, examine and price our fabrics. No treu-

KAHN & SON.